MOON PHASES

This First Full moon of the New Year comes to us on January 10th at 10:27 pm under the sign of cancer. This moon is known as the Wolf moon, this is the moon of new beginnings.

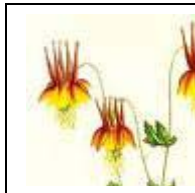

The Upright Emperor depicts our confidence within our chosen field of expertise, In business it is the wise leader, the boss who can maintain control without losing popularity. At home it is the parent who guides their children with love coupled with assertiveness, we find the authoritative director, the approachable parent and the natural leader.

Manifestation, Creative Power, The Will to Be, Having all of the tools you need. Feedback from the phenomenal world. Take raw materials of intellect, emotions, body & creativity. Ability to communicate. . The masculine power of creation, creation by willpower & desire. . Exercise of will and learning. Sets goals and seeks accomplishments

.Reversed Emperor: we come across stubbornness, bigoted and egotistical, refusing to compromise, and insisting that he is right at all costs. Manipulative words and actions. Weakness in will, insecurity, delay, no imagination. Methods may not be entirely ethical. Success delayed due to lack of confidence. Worrying about risks. Use of power for destructive ends. Project fails. Poorly made plans. Poorly formed intentions.

Guardianship,
loyalty and spirit

If the wolf has come into your life It is telling you to know who you are and to develop strength, confidence and surety so that you do not have to demonstrate and prove yourself to all. Wolf helps you understand that true freedom requires discipline. When wolf shows up it is time to search out new paths and take control of your life.
